Minister Saqeb Khanbazadeh on the sidelines of Raisina Dialogue 2026 in New Delhi on Friday.
The talks between two ministers comes amid the ongoing conflict in West Asia, which was triggered by the joint US-Israel strikes against Iran on February 28, aimed at degrading Tehran's missile capabilities and military infrastructure.
The opening wave of the operation killed senior figures in the Iranian leadership, including Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei, triggering a response from Tehran in the form of drone and missile attacks targeting US assets, regional allies, and Israel.
